

Nature Connection Retreat

Presented by

A virtual event with Faith Fuller and Janet Froid

Saturday July 24, 2021

8 AM - 4 PM PT | 11 AM - 7 PM ET

Calling all weary world workers!
Join us as we pause with purpose
and find our way back home to self and nature.

Retreat Objectives

Carve out a day and let nature do the heavy lifting. In this one day virtual retreat we will explore how nature can be a support and ally in a volatile world. We'll also engage with practices that help us reconnect with the wisdom of nature.

This is not a “coach training” but an experiential retreat day with an emphasis on being in nature. The day will be all about connection. Our high dream is you will leave this retreat feeling energized, inspired and refreshed for whatever work you do.

Retreat Details

- A one day, eight hour virtual experience
- Lots of space for nature connection and personal reflection.
- Led by Janet Froot (Leadership & Team Coach and Nature Connection Guide) and Faith Fuller (Co- founder of CRR Global.)
- Cost $175.00 USD

You will need:

- Zoom technology (good access to internet). You will alternate easy access to an inviting nature space (could be your own back yard, park or a nature reserve) when you are not on Zoom.
- In the event of adverse weather, being able to sit inside and view nature, or be in a sheltered place outside, (or dance in the puddles if rain).
- You will receive an e-workbook and readiness instructions shortly before the retreat.
